

Main table containing financial data with columns for company names, codes, and various financial metrics. The table is organized in a grid format with multiple columns per row.